

INVESTMENT PROFESSIONALS, NOT JUST REALTORS®

HELPING YOU REACH YOUR INVESTMENT GOALS

WORKING WITH A CONNECTED REALTOR

Using a true local expert is critical when it comes to investment properties. You wouldn't go white water rafting with a guide who doesn't know the river would you? Then why trust your hard earned investment money to anyone other than a TW local pro who knows the ins and outs of the market.

Our sales representatives are passionate about investing and serious about helping you find the best kind of investment property that suits your needs.

Whether it is a tiny bungalow with an accessory apartment, or a 30-unit multi-residential apartment building, we have all the necessary tools and know how to make sure you are buying the right kind of investment.

OUR CONNECTED REALTORS®

- Know the best investments to buy and which ones to avoid.
- Track market trends such as vacancy rate and average market rent to ensure they are advising their clients in the best possible way.
- Study critical deciding factors such as cash flow, cap rates, and return on investment for every property and client.
- Invest their own time, energy and money into the real estate investment market to ensure they're seeing every piece of the puzzle.
- Understand that each investor is at a different stage in the game and cater to the individual needs of that investor.
- Advise from a position of experience and knowledge.
- Analyze the market constantly to optimize the timing of your purchase or sale.
- Provide the tools to assist our investor clients: rental applications, credit checks, leases, etc.

DETERMINING INVESTMENT GOALS

Each investor is different and has their own unique investment goals as well as risk tolerances. The connected TrilliumWest Realtor® starts every relationship by determining each individual investor's goals through a consultation.

SHOW ME THE $$$

Investing in Real Estate provides a number of opportunities for an investor to make a return.

MARKET APPRECIATION

Markets trend upwards over time

CASHFLOW

Rental income offsets expenses

PRINCIPLE RECAPTURE

Tenants pay your mortgage down over time

FORCED APPRECIATION

Where flippers live - improvements that add value beyond actual cost

Depending on each investor's goals, this will dictate which of the above we focus more heavily on.

For example, if cash flow is most important, student and multi-unit properties will likely be best-suited; however, these types of properties tend to come with increased management.

If market appreciation is the goal, purchasing in "up and coming" areas or pre-construction condos might be the best strategy; however, this can be more speculative, so risk tolerance must be accounted for.

Your TrilliumWest Realtor can help you navigate the advantages and disadvantages of all the different investment opportunities available in the market.

WE KNOW INVESTMENT PROPERTIES

When it comes to investment property, we help take your game to another level.

Working with Realtors® who are in sync with the word on the street gives you that elusive inside investment edge. We relentlessly study the local landlord landscape so that you always have the most accurate lay of the investment land.

A knowledgeable Realtor® that focuses specifically on investment properties is keenly aware of exact market trends. We can be valued advisors on timing, what the next hot neighbourhoods are, and where we see the biggest future gains.

But the partnership doesn't stop there. We advise on important market rents, desirability, and always get you on the inside track with important niche markets. When purchasing investment properties for students, downsizers, multi-unit properties or pre-construction condos, you gotta talk to us first.
